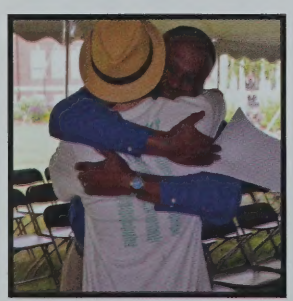
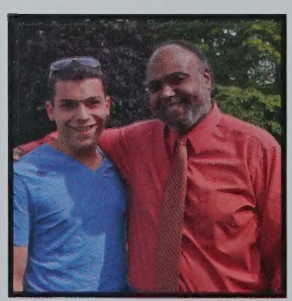
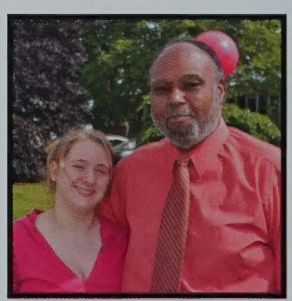
Yearbook Dedication

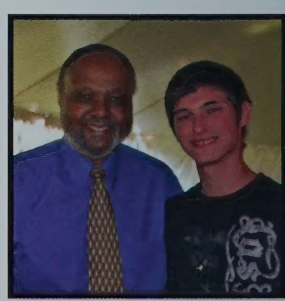
Mr. Hill

The yearbook staff, on behalf of the Class of 2013 is honored to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Hill. Mr. Hill has been an inspiration to many of the Aggie's students. No matter the day or how busy his schedule was, he always made time for people when they needed to talk. He always seems to know just what to say, and understands the value of an open ear and shoulder to lean on. Thank you for being honest, reliable, authentic, patient, genuine, amazing and above all dedicated to our school. Thank you! The Class of 2013









Class Advisers

Mrs. Roy & Mr. Stackhouse

The Class of 2013 would like to extend a special thank you to our class advisers, Mrs. Roy & Mr. Stackhouse. With your help, persistence and the endless hours you spent, we were able to make our senior year memorable!

Meeting everyone at Freshmen Orientation!

You often see horses on the front lawn!

You go home covered in swamp water!

It's not a good day, unless you get dirty!

The parking lot has more trucks than cars.

A goat, dog, horse, llama or bird actually eats your homework!

You know you go to

The trunk of your car is filled to the top with boots, grooming buckets and "barn clothes".

Your class is digging holes and "playing" in the mud!

Its okay to bring your dog on the bus!

Its not uncommon to look out a third floor window & see someone across from you in a tree.

You are used to seeing your teachers pets!

You see tractors driving around school.

You get excited over new boots!

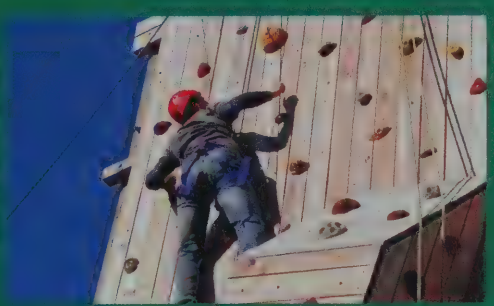
You hold craft scissors like grooming shears!

It's a bigger deal to forget your boots than your homework!

The Aggie When....

The teachers don't get mad at you for tracking in mud.. they do it too!

Your favorite gym class is at the ropes course



You see gators driving around campus!

You've been involved in Funky Shirt Friday!

Memories flash before us
As we stop and think of you
If we could turn back time
That's the first thing we would do

We can't begin to tell you
Just how loved you are
We can't believe how time has flown
And how you've come so far

There are no doubts within our minds
That you'll indeed succeed
Your future holds so much in store
But that smile is all you need

Greatness lies within you, Billy
In time, my son, you'll see
And if you ever need us
You know that's were we'll be.

We love you so much,
Mom Dad Tina and Nana
